April 12-13, 2012

The Colorado Creative Industries Summit will provide inspiration, networking and learning opportunities for Colorado creatives. Artist-entrepreneurs, owners of creative sector businesses, nonprofit cultural workers, and emerging creatives will come together for this inaugural event.

The theme of the summit will be Cultivating Common Ground and will feature keynotes and workshops featuring Colorado creatives who are talented, inspiring and motivational.

The Governor's Arts Award event will be the culminating luncheon on the second day of the Summit, celebrating a Colorado town or city that has effectively employed the arts and creative activity as a strategy for community and economic development.
