"She who laughs, lasts." Get ready to laugh during this positively hilarious luncheon keynote session about personal resilience and its role in our overall state of happiness and success. Motivational comedian, entrepreneur and author Karyn Ruth White will help us look at the humor that goes along with taking 100 percent professional and personal responsibility for ourselves, our success, our failures and our overall happiness. Let's face it - our mistakes can be hilarious, and the ability to laugh amid setbacks, disappointments and stress is the true definition of resilience.

The first 100 attendees will receive a FREE copy of Karyn Ruth's book, "How To Think Like a Comedian!"
